

PASEKA MABINA

Director of Climate Change Mitigation and Analysis, DFFE

Paseka Mabina is the Director of Climate Change Mitigation and Analysis at the Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment. He leads work on emissions pathways, carbon budgets, sectoral emissions targets and the country's long-term low-emissions development strategy. His work connects research, policy and stakeholder engagement to advance South Africa's transition towards net-zero emissions.