

Consider your mental and emotional
state regularly, it's important.

Also, be kind and compassionate in everyday interactions because you don't know what mental health challenges others may have.

Make mental health a priority.
Get support when you need it.

Mental health is a universal human right