The Minerals Council South Africa's Members appoint Paul Dunne as President and re-appoints its Vice Presidents.

Johannesburg, 28 May 2025. The Members of the Minerals Council South Africa appointed Paul Dunne as the organisation's President and reappointed its three Vice-Presidents for their second year in office.

The Members thanked Mr Dunne for acting as Caretaker President during 2024 and voted for him to continue as President for 2025.

The Minerals Council is pleased to announce that Themba Mkhwanazi, Richard Stewart and Mpumi Zikalala will continue as Vice Presidents of the Minerals Council, ensuring leadership continuity during a time of regulatory flux for the mining industry and efforts to stabilise the operating environment in South Africa.
