

DR NAZEEM MUSTAPHA

Research Director, CeSTII

Dr Nazeem Mustapha is Research Director of the National Advisory Council on Innovation's Centre for Science, Technology and Innovation Indicators (CeSTII), which is currently located at the Human Sciences Research Council. Since joining CeSTII in 2011, Dr Mustapha has advanced the Centre's research capabilities, standardising survey methodologies and leading the South African national R&D Survey to an official statistics accreditation.

He has also opened new areas of research in innovation measurement, such as within informal sector businesses and public sector enterprises (SOEs). Dr Mustapha's tenure at Statistics South Africa was marked by notable achievements, including the development of integrated models that combine socio-economic indicators for GDP prediction and his influential role in establishing gazetted quality frameworks for official statistics nationwide. Dr Mustapha holds a PhD in Applied Mathematics from the University of Cape Town.
