MINERALS COUNCIL OFFERS CONDOLENCES ON THE DEATH OF DAVID SIPUNZI

Johannesburg, 26 December 2020: The Minerals Council South Africa has extended its sincere condolences to the family of David Sipunzi, and to his colleagues and members of the National Union of Mineworkers (NUM). Mr Sipunzi, who was the General Secretary of the NUM, passed away on 25 December 2020.

Mr Sipunzi led by example, and was always willing to engage with all parties, while fully representing the interests of his members. Particularly during this year, where companies, government and unions have collaborated closely on preventing and managing the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic, Mr Sipunzi demonstrated his leadership and compassion, and his belief in the value of the mining industry. He will be missed.
